

HINTON FC Juniors 2089/19

Child Protection Policy.

The Football Association/NSPCC Child Protection Helpline is 0808 800 5000.

Background.

The FA Child Protection Procedures and Practices handbook places a very clear responsibility on Clubs to ensure that they safeguard and promote the welfare of all children.

The purpose of this policy is to inform all Managers/Assistant Managers about these responsibilities and to enable everyone to have clear understanding of how they are to be carried out.

The club follows the procedures contained within the FA Child Protection Procedures and Practices Handbook - a guide to procedure and practice for all FA Coaches / managers-

This club acknowledges that Managers are particularly well placed to notice outward signs of abuse, changes in behaviour, or failure to develop. We recognise the important role we have in early recognition of the signs and symptoms of abuse or neglect and appropriate referral procedures.

Club Procedures.

Introduction.

Any adult member of the club management could be approached by a Child needing help or guidance. Likewise any Manager / Assistant Manager may be in a position to notice or be concerned about physical Or sexual abuse or neglect.

If any Manager / Assistant Manager is concerned about a child they must Inform either of the designated Child Protection Officers (Simon Hall or Graham Goodfellow) unless he is the cause for concern in which case, they will inform the local HFA child Protection officer Anna Thomasson Email: Anna.Thomasson@HerefordshireFA.com Phone: 07494 312792.

The Manager must record information regarding concerns / Assistant Manager on the same day. The recording must be a clear, Precise, factual account of the observations and must be signed and Dated. The Child Protection Officer will decide whether concerns Should be referred to the FA, Social Services or the Police.

Concerns will not be discussed with parents before the Child Protection Officer has assessed the situation and consulted the authorities.

When to be concerned.

Managers should take note if any of the following are observed.

- Any injury that is not typical of the bumps and scrapes normally associated with children's activities.
- The regular occurrence of unexplained injuries.
- Confused or conflicting explanations of how injuries were sustained.
- Significant changes in behaviour or attitude.
- Sexual behaviour which is unusually explicit or inappropriate to the child's age.

- A recounting of an experience by a child in which they have been significantly harmed.

Dealing with disclosure.

The following points give guidance on how Managers / Assistant Managers should deal with disclosure made to them.

- Do not promise confidentiality.
- Explain who you will have to tell and why.
- Listen to what is being said, without displaying shock or disbelief.
- Accept what is being said.
- Allow the child to talk freely, limit questions and speak only to clarify.
- Strictly avoid leading the child or adult who has made the approach by making suggestions or introducing your own ideas into what may have happened.
- Never ask leading questions such as " did he do x to you ". Instead use open questions like " Tel me what happened ".
- If it is an adult making the approach and it becomes obvious that they are making significant allegations concerning either abuse or neglect, you may feel it appropriate to re direct them to the club child Protection officer. Unless he is the subject of the allegation.
- Be especially careful to distinguish between fact and opinion. Note any non-verbal communication/behaviour.
- Reassure the child but do not make a promise you cannot keep.
- Reassure the child that what has happened is not their fault.
- Stress that the child has done the right thing by telling you.
- Do not alter the child's account by condemning or criticising the suspected person.
- Record the disclosures on anything time and date the record then notify the club CPO.

BY FOLLOWING THE CORRECT PROCEDURES
YOU ARE PROTECTING YOURSELF, THE CLUB
AND OUR CHILDREN

If any member of the Management at any stage has concerns for their own safety, especially after having made a referral to the Club Child Protection Officer they should immediately bring this to the Clubs attention and the relevant authorities will be notified.
